Date	93-02-17	CST. DHILLON continues to perform his duties in a most acceptable manner. He is constantly busy either working on an investigation or doing self-generated work. He is never idle. (CST. DHILLON)
Date		always has a purpose for what he does and where he wants to go in the future. He has a clear idea what he wants from his career in the force and is willing to do the work to achieve it. He is eager to learn and takes any & all instruction given to him in a positive light & puts it to work for him. He does make mistakes i.e. not signing an unregistered revolver when he had it in his possession, but these are always due to lack of experience not making for laziness and when the error is pointed out to him he accepts it immediately. He has shown that he can be tyrannical in his pursuit of a suspect and that when faced with little evidence he can be counted on to interview well towards a confession. For this one aspect he is now starting to develop confidence and technique as an interviewer. (CST. G.B. Et Dhillon)

Date	At a time if no driver previous was available he was satisfied with this and would consider the matter closed. He has now come to realize that he can be successful with an effort towards a confession.
Date	CST. PHILLIPS is beginning to show ability towards working in the plainclothes capacity. Some examples of files are: 92-9536 B&E of Residence. His physical evidence - suspect was former John Child. Obtained confession. 92-10135 Credit Card Fraud at Peter-Lip Station. Three employees were suspects, however, no evidence to link them was available. CST. PHILLIPS obtained confessions from two suspects and is still after the third. 93-492 Credit Card Fraud with Stolen Lost card. CST. PHILLIPS arrested two suspect females at a store where card was being used. He managed to obtain confession from them before they spoke with council and decided to remain silent. He is learning well to use the rules of evidence to his best advantage.
