

The Sun

VANCOUVER, B. C., SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1914—SIXTEEN PAGES

The Weather
Today's forecast: Vancouver
Lower Mainland—Light winds; mostly cloudy with

TOPICS OF THE WEEK IN CARTOON

THE BATTLE OF "CHUCK-A-CHUNK," VANCOUVER'S FIRST NAVAL ENGAGEMENT.

IT IS ANNOUNCED THAT SIR WILFRED LAURIER WILL SOON PAY VANCOUVER A VISIT.

TWO CHINAMEN HOLD UP A GAMBLING RESORT FREQUENTED BY THEIR COUNTRYMEN.

VANCOUVER IS ON TOP OF THE NORTH-WEST LEAGUE, AND INTENDS TO STAY THERE.

NEXT STEP WILL BE THE MOBILIZATION OF ULSTER VOLUNTEERS

If This Not Effective, Provincial Government Will Then Be Set Up Before Home Rule Passes.

Villa Strengthens Himself by Purchase of Large Quantities Of Arms in American Cities

Constitutionalist General Believed to Be Meditating Some Action Against the Pacification of Mexico.

Coincident with this came further news that Villa was entrenching himself in his Chihuahua stronghold. Arrivals from Santa Rosalla, Torreon, Chihuahua City and other points said that those towns were placarded with appeals for enlistment in the army of

MAY PASS HOME RULE BILL, THEN APPEAL TO THE ELECTORATE

Intimated that Government Will Take This Course if Lords Persist in Their Demands.

LIBERAL CHIEF GET GREAT ON HIS

Meeting Will Be August 1 to Make Arrangements for of Sir V

GENERAL INV GIVEN

Vancouver Exhibition Anxious Open the Liberals for Vancouver are making arrangements for to this city and for Sir Wilfrid Laurier to visit in September. Sir Wilfrid is on a series of meetings on his Western tour.

Steps have been taken in the instance of the party plans for the Liberal tour in British Columbia following a meeting of the committee, appointed by the executive of the British Columbia Liberal Association, to promote the Liberal Association in the North-West.