to The Immigration Agent,
Vancouver, B.C.

Sir,

I beg to inform you that I am in a great danger; the charterer and passengers of this ship think me a secret spy, the charterer Gurdit Singh delivered a lecture before all the passengers, and accused me of being a Government detective.

They have begun to abuse me on my face, which I cannot stand.

I am in their hands and they might do the worst thing. The charterer does not wish me to remain in his service. Please take immediate action to avoid consequences. Give me a right to land or arrange for my returning back to Hong Kong by another steamer.

I am willing to pay the ship fare etc., myself.

Please do something or else I will be obliged to seek the protection of higher authorities.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Signed. Raghunath Singh I.S.M.D.
