Mr. M. R. J. Reid,

The Immigration Agent,

Vancouver, B. C.

Sir:

I have already many times informed you of my position on the ship.

My life is in danger they may strike me at any moment, because the matters are getting dangerous for me.

I can not stand their insults and am sorry to have nothing to defend me.

I don't much mind about landing as I have written you many times before. Kindly arrange to send me back to India by another steamer than this and I am willing to pay the ship fare. Have you no pity?

For God's sake save me from this and send me out of this ship.

Kindly do something or I am lost.

Yours truly,

"Rughumath Singh"

S. S. Komagata Maru.

Master Bhan Singh and Pohlo Ram have turned against me and told Gurdit Singh that I am the man who tell everything against the ship to the Immigration people, therefore I am left alone, all the blame on my head. Bhan Singh and Pohlo Ram have asked apologies and are safe. Everyone is against me now.
