

C O P Y:

Vancouver, B. C., July 19th 1914.

Captain Yamamoto,
s.s. Komogata Maru,

Dear Sir:-

We are in receipt of instructions from the Government of Canada, at Ottawa, that the law must be enforced and that those who have resisted the Police in the performance of their duties must be punished. Steps will be taken accordingly by the full authority of the Dominion of Canada.

Yours truly,

Sgd. Malcolm R. J. Reid,

Dominion Immigration Agent and Inspector.
