WHEREAS it has been made to appear to our satisfaction that a riot or disturbance of the peace beyond the powers of the Civil Authorities to deal with and requiring the aid of the active Militia to that end, is anticipated as likely to occur at the City of Vancouver, B. C.:

THESE ARE, THEREFORE, to require you to call out the active Militia present in the City of Vancouver, or such portion thereof as you consider necessary for the purpose of dealing with such riot or disturbance.

Dated at Vancouver, B. C., this 21st day of July, 1914.
