

we began talking about dose & safes but only the shaky log when there was a couple about 100 feet away.

JULY

TUESDAY 21

1914

Fairly fine.

Rob, Russ & I went down to the wharf at 8 and waited there till 12 expecting to see the "sofers" make sausages out of the Hindus on the Komagata Maru but the "Rainbow" anchored about a block off from it & nothing happened.

We enjoyed ourselves listening to a drunk commenting on the situation & throwing out witticisms about the Highlanders; then we had fun watching a little drunk cockney of 8 stone & four offering "to 'ave a gāo with anyone of me own weight." Rob, Russ, George & I play tennis till 4:30.

Rob, Russ & I walk around Bay at band concert & meet Keyes & their bunch quite often. We got into a nice mess almost when
