

CERTIFICATE OF POST OFFICE REGISTRATION

No. 232

Registered this day a fully prepaid Letter addressed to

A handwritten signature in dark ink, written over a series of horizontal dotted lines. The signature is stylized and appears to be a name.

Postmaster.

N.B.—A certificate is to be given for every letter accepted for registration whether the party posting the letter applies for one or not. A Postmaster failing to give a certificate for every such letter incurs a serious responsibility.

Postmasters will please to notice that the above certificate purports to be for a fully prepaid letter. They should therefore see that the letter is fully prepaid before accepting it.

[OVER]

50 B.—1,000,000 sheets. 23-9-20.

Points to be noted in connection with Registered Letters or other registered articles.

1. The letter should be fully and precisely addressed in a distinct hand-writing. In like manner the certificate given therefor by the Postmaster should be distinctly and carefully stamped and numbered.

2. A person posting a registered letter should not leave the Post Office till he has obtained his certificate of registration.

3. The letter should bear stamps to the full amount of the postage and registration fee. The sender should attend to the due prepayment of his letter himself. A Postmaster is only responsible for doing that which it is his duty to do, and it is not his duty to place stamps on letters for other people.

4. The letter should be in good order when handed to the Postmaster, that is, it should be enclosed in a suitable envelope carefully sealed with wax or gum.

5. Letters for registration should be brought to the Post Office some time before the mail closes.

6. Persons receiving registered letters that call for acknowledgment would frequently save trouble to themselves, to their correspondents and to the Post Office by acknowledging them promptly.
