

Mrs Anna Hour

CERTIFICATE OF POST OFFICE REGISTRATION

No. 209

.....
Postmaster.

FEE if more than 10c.

c.

This certificate should be kept and submitted in case it should become necessary to make enquiry for the registered article.

The Post Office keeps a complete record of the registered article; but the sender, should he desire to do so, might write the name of the person to whom the registered article is addressed on the back hereof as a further means of identification with records of his own.