

CERTIFICATE OF POST OFFICE REGISTRATION

No. 669

[Signature]
Postmaster.

This certificate should be kept and submitted in case it should become necessary to make enquiry for the registered article.

The Post Office keeps a complete record of the registered article; but the sender, should he desire to do so, might write the name of the person to whom the registered article is addressed on the back hereof as a further means of identification with records of his own.