This receipt is accepted on the understanding that The Canadian Bank of Commerce shall not be held responsible for any delays, interruptions or errors on the part of the post office or telegraph or cable companies, or of their agents or on the part of any foreign correspondents. It is expressly understood and agreed that this transaction is accepted by the Bank on condition that should it be necessary to refund the equivalent of the remittance for any reason whatsoever the remitter will assume all risks of fluctuations in exchange. The Bank shall not be required to make any refund until it shall have received advice from its branch, correspondent, agent or sub-agent that the payment is cancelled and the Bank is in possession of the relative funds.

Any order for the payment of any particular exchange is accepted on the understanding that if conditions arise making it impracticable to complete the payment in that exchange the correspondents of the Bank are authorized to effect payment at their best rates in the currency of the country of destination.

This transfer is issued on the understanding that the Bank accepts no responsibility for loss or delay occasioned by measures taken by the government of any foreign country.
