Dear Dr. Pandia:

Re: My son-in-law, Karnail
Singh and Immigration

I confirm your two wires as follows:

"RECEIVED LETTER TAKING UP MATTER DONT WORRY"

"CONTACTED OTTAWA FAVORABLE DECISION EXPECTED LETTER FOLLOWS"

Regarding your second wire I have not had any letter from you and I am doubtful whether you neglected to mail or this letter went astray in the mail. As I am anxious to know the result I would ask you to be good enough to let me know the outcome of this.

Best regards and the Compliments of the Season from Mrs. Mayo and myself.

Yours truly,

Mayo Singh

TERMS AND CONDITIONS UPON WHICH TELEGRAPH AND CABLE MESSAGES SHALL BE TRANSMITTED
ARE PRESCRIBED BY ORDER No. 49274 DATED DECEMBER 5th, 1932, OF THE BOARD OF TRANSPORT COMMISSIONERS FOR CANADA, AND PUBLISHED IN THE CANADA GAZETTE.

It is agreed between the sender of the message, on the face of this form and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for damages arising from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of any unrepeatable telegram, whether happening from negligence of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruptions in the working of its lines, for errors in cypher or obscure messages, or for errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

To guard against errors, the Company will repeat back any telegram for an extra payment of one-half the regular rate, and in that case the Company shall be liable for damages, suffered by the sender to an extent not exceeding $200, due to the negligence of the Company in the transmission or delivery of the telegram.

Correctness in the transmission and delivery of messages can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz.: one per cent, for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent, for any greater distance.

This Company shall not be liable for the act or omission of any other Company, but will endeavor to forward the telegram by any other Telegraph Company necessary to reaching its destination, but only as the agent of the sender and without liability therefor. The Company shall not be responsible for messages until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers he acts for that purpose as the sender's agent; if by telephone the person receiving the message acts therein as agent of the sender, being authorized to assent to these conditions for the sender. This Company shall not be liable in any case for damages, unless the same be claimed, in writing, within sixty days after receipt of the telegram for transmission.

No employee of the Company shall vary the foregoing.

CLASSES OF SERVICE

FULL RATE TELEGRAM

A full-rate expedited service.

NIGHT TELEGRAM

Accepted up to 2 a.m. at reduced rates, to be sent during the night and delivered on the morning of the next day after their date at places where the Company's offices are open on Sundays, and on the morning of the next ensuing business day at places where the Company's offices are not open on Sundays.

DAY LETTERS

A deferred day service at rates lower than the standard telegram rates as follows: One and one-half times the ten-word day telegram rate for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of the initial rate for such 50 words for each additional 10 words or less.

Day letters may be forwarded by the Company as a deferred service, and the transmission and delivery of such Day Letters are, in all respects, subordinate to the priority of transmission and delivery of full-rate telegrams.

Day Letters may be delivered by the Company by telephoning the same to the addressees and such deliveries shall be a complete discharge of the obligation of the Company to deliver.

Day Letters are received subject to the express understanding and agreement that the Company does not undertake that a Day Letter shall be delivered on the day of its date absolutely and at all events; but that the Company's obligation in this respect is subject to the condition that there shall remain sufficient time for the transmission and delivery of such Day Letter on the day of its date during regular office hours, subject to the priority of the transmission of full-rate telegrams under the conditions named above.

NIGHT LETTERS

Accepted up to 2 a.m. for delivery on the morning of the next day after their date at places where the Company's offices are open on Sundays, and on the morning of the next ensuing business day at places where the Company's offices are not open on Sundays, at rates still lower than its standard night telegram rates as follows: The standard day rate for 10 words for the transmission of 50 words or less and one-fifth of the initial rate for such 50 words for each additional 10 words or less.

Night Letters may, at the option of the Company, be mailed at destination to the addressees, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such Night Letters at destination, postage prepaid.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Nov. 18, 1948.

Dr. D.P. Pandia,
5-2 Northwood Hall,
Hornsey Lane,
Highgate,
London, N. 6,
England.

Dear Dr. Pandia:

It is quite nice to have a letter from you dated Nov. 3rd. Ever since you left Canada I was at a loss to find your whereabouts. However, I am so pleased that you are doing so fine and are still in England. I congratulate you for all the successes you have achieved for our folks in Canada. The Canada-India Association is still going strong and Mr. Kapoor and I are subscribing monthly as promised. Lately we had a distinguished visitor, Pandit Rishi Ram, and his lectures were arranged under the auspices of this Association.

As for my personal affairs are concerned, I have a problem on hand for my son-in-law, Karnail Singh Saroya, in connection with immigration matters. As you are aware this boy came to Canada on Feb. 15th. At that time we did not have any concessions from the Immigration Department to bring our sons-in-law to Canada and this boy entered Canada only for a temporary visit and during the same month married my daughter, Joginder Kaur, and we entered an application for his permanent stay in Canada with the Immigration in Victoria on September 24, 1948; On which they issued an order for his deportation. An appeal was made to the Minister of Mines and Resources at Ottawa and here is a copy of the order which we are attaching herewith.

I am fully aware that the Honorable Mr. MacKinnon, Minister of Mines and Resources at Ottawa, is a personal friend of yours. Would you please suggest what should be done and if there is anything you can do would you please take it up direct. For your information, I wish to say that my daughter, Joginder Kaur, was born in Canada and is an active member and director of a number of my firms. If anything can be done I am sure you will not save any effort. Awaiting with an earnest desire on your letter by return mail and best regards to you from Mrs. Mayo and myself, I am

Yours sincerely,

My dear Mr. Mayo Singh:

I am sorry that I have not been able to write to you before this as I have been very busy during Pandit Nehru's visit preparing memoranda on the problems of our people in the various parts of the Western hemisphere.

I have no doubt that you are happy about the recent government decision which will enable our people to bring their sons-in-law and helpers to Canada. Under this arrangement your son-in-law will be able to remain now as a full immigrant and will be able to assist you in your business. Of course if I had stayed in Ottawa a little longer I feel sure that I could also have made arrangements for the admission of other relations also. However, our last victory will help our people to some extent and is the opening wedge for further concessions. Success of this work was largely due to the support of such friends as yourself and I wish to again thank you for your cooperation. I feel sure that the community will appreciate your efforts on their behalf.

I brought to the attention of Pandit Nehru the remaining problems of our people in Canada, and I also saw Mr. Malik again as he was called here for consultation. I discussed the question of the quota with him and it will soon be taken up with the Canadian government.

I was most happy to hear of the successful endeavours of the Canada-India Association of which you are a leading member and keen supporter. Please keep up the good work for the good of the community.

I expect to be here for a few months and I shall be most happy to hear from you whenever you have the time.

I wish you all success in your business.

With kind regards and best wishes to you, Mrs. Mayo Singh and the family.

Yours sincerely,
