REGULATIONS

1.—All deposits must be entered in the Pass-book when made, and the entries initialed by the Ledger-keeper.

2.—Interest will be allowed (except on chequing accounts carrying small balances) at such rate and on such terms as the Bank shall from time to time establish. The current rate can, at all times, be ascertained at the Bank.

3.—The Bank reserves the right to pay a Deposit only to the Depositor in person and to require the production of the Pass-book.

4.—When an account is closed the Pass-book must be handed in, but will, if desired, be returned to the Depositor after cancellation. If closed within 90 days of opening a small charge may be made to cover the cost of service and stationery.

5.—The Bank reserves the right to require ten days' notice when all or any portion of a deposit is withdrawn.

6.—Possession of this Pass-book does not necessarily entitle the holder to withdraw the balance of the account or any part of it at another branch.
