

J. Ross Tolmie; The Orientals in B.C., B A, hist. UBC, 1929.

13. 1913- recession/ prompted orders in council rel prohibition of landing of skilled or unskilled labour in B.C. Dec. 8, 1913

note rel folk view of things that terms 'invasion' John Chinaman, coolie labour/ idea of massive indenture. 'pig tails'

15. after the war the exclusion became a force again. ybbbbbbbbbbhhhh
h

16. notes menace value of the Japanese after the war.

17. no J in the 1891 census, but 4674 in 1901

NOTE: 18. Joseph Chamberlain, Br. Colonial Secretary, 1900 suggested that B.C. emply a European literacy law to control immigration, as per Natal see Royal Commission on C and J, 1902, p398.

20-21. massive 1906-7 Japanese immigration. 21. "the wiley Japanese". this result of U .S. immigration restriction.

1908 (24) gentleman's agreement restricted J to 486/yr.

30 Indian immigration stopped 'in their own interest'

32. 1921-5 136 Hindum 36 women, 24 children.
1926-62, 1927-60 immigrants., about onehalf women.

44. rel tuberculosis deaths. The Chinaman, for all his fabled hardiness, is not immune to the Inevitable Reaper."

54. rel the 'birthrate scare of 1927' the Hindus were not considered significant.
1911- 2292, 1921--951, 1927--1233.

67. rel coal mining pay differentials --C.

141 notes multi-partments partner establishments.

142 considers now well established---used Das mostly.

144 Hindu characteristics. integrity, thrift, patriotism, spirit of universality.

147 notes extreme sensitivity to. prejudice.