

[Newspaper clipping of a photo of Gurdit Singh and a group of Sikh men on Komagata Maru]

great excitement tension, as we read Vancouver papers, langer-strike was ed, but abandoned. in Canadians failed in imprest by its possibilities. A at was trade to burn ship, on the idea the people would ue the passengers; that, too, seemed criain. For several ate a lookout was intained on the water-at, to rouse the city arms if a rumored a to land should be opted. Ou Monhas week the of Appeal dethe facts. The facts are that free peculia here a right to say whom they will soften that the fact as a few means are convery, read as free means that the facts are the facts and the facts are the facts and the facts are the facts and the facts and facts and facts are members of methodishes and subjects of the Crown who are excluded from the Deminions. It is usedes to say that this chould not be. It is:

The feeling of the

The feeling of the Vancouver people over this intrusion of Asi-atics upon their shores may be seen from the following resolutions pessed at a enwided morting of the citizens

"That whereas the steamer Komaşsia Maru-has been lying in the port of Vanovaver from

IDENTIFIER 2023_15_05_003