

[Pages from Mayo Lumber Company monthly payroll book, 1915-1917]

The image shows an open payroll book with two pages visible. The left page is headed "Time, for the month of" and the right page is headed "July 1916". Both pages contain a grid of handwritten entries. The entries consist of names in the left column and numerical values in the right columns. The names are written in cursive and include names such as "John", "James", "William", "George", "Charles", "Edward", "Frank", "Robert", "Thomas", "Richard", "Henry", "John", "James", "William", "George", "Charles", "Edward", "Frank", "Robert", "Thomas", "Richard", "Henry". The numerical values are also handwritten and appear to be wages or hours. The book is bound in the center, and the pages are slightly aged and yellowed.
