

Parks Canada on the commemoration of the history of ethnocultural communities in British Columbia workshop

Parks Canada on the Commonsulon of the History of

Ethnocoltural Communities in British Columbia Workshop

March 3, 2005, Vancouver, B.C.

Proposal: Respectfully solvers the following present (Mr. Mayo Singli) and the site (Paki Sith Temple) for consideration by the pand and the committee as Historical Importance for British Columbia and Canadian History

As this workshop is intended to provide memorous participants an opportunity to bring to light bistorical importance of purscer(s), and(s), and even(s) in our Canadian history and to have the panel and consultate consider construction ring the and points of Wateren, it is may intendicent to keep the proposal truth and to the point so that others may have time to study all the interesting proposals persented at this workshop.

Persen

Mr. Mayo Singh (1888-1955)

At the new of the century Canada had seen a treasendors growth in its industrial neutra and its eccentry. Prime Ministry Willing Laurier and his government had accountaged immigrants, especially from Europe, to come to Canada and make it their house. These immigrants wanted a better life than what they had in their own constity. They wanted a better finance not only for these sources has also for their children.

The Aslam wanted the same thing. One of these Aslams was Mr. Mayo Singh, an Bast Indian from the Penjah, India. No. Nayo earns to Vancouver via San Prancisco in 1907 to join his bother and consists in Carada. He arrived is the Lower residual at a fine when there was moveming residuations in the link of Cohumbi. Vancouver Rists of 1905, where the while section attacked the Chinese and the Japanese residents, caused the federal government to institute very barth intrigration policies against Asian intrigrants. They pleased an uncessorable hand tax on the Chinese, henced Inpanese intraligence, not implemented the 'continuous possage clause' on the Bast Indias who were, trovically. British adopted. The histhest of the continuous panage clause two

IDENTIFIER 2020_06_16_006

ARTIST

Parks Canada; Singh, Mayo, 1891-1955