

[Memorandum by Sundar Singh, re the treatment of the Komagata Maru passengers]

Exon Chuk & Co.
22, 23 & 24, 1914.
B.C. 100000
Memorandum

There are 375 and odd Hindus arriving in the steamer "Komagata Maru" in Vancouver B.C. last week. They are the passengers of the "Komagata Maru" and they are not known to the Canadian authorities. The Canadian authorities are not aware of the existence of the "Komagata Maru" and they are not aware of the existence of the "Komagata Maru" and they are not aware of the existence of the "Komagata Maru".

Pending the decision of the Canadian authorities, it is suggested that the passengers of the "Komagata Maru" should be kept in the "Komagata Maru" and they should be kept in the "Komagata Maru" and they should be kept in the "Komagata Maru".

It is suggested that the passengers of the "Komagata Maru" should be kept in the "Komagata Maru" and they should be kept in the "Komagata Maru" and they should be kept in the "Komagata Maru".

It is suggested that the passengers of the "Komagata Maru" should be kept in the "Komagata Maru" and they should be kept in the "Komagata Maru" and they should be kept in the "Komagata Maru".

It is suggested that the passengers of the "Komagata Maru" should be kept in the "Komagata Maru" and they should be kept in the "Komagata Maru" and they should be kept in the "Komagata Maru".

IDENTIFIER
2021_07_5293

ARTIST
Singh, Sunder