Swami Trigunatita, San Francisco, Cal.
Dear Sir:

At last I have found time to write you a few lines in reply to your letter. Whether I am put in positions which you put to me the other night with respect to the ... I am sure to see at all kinds of your surreptitious powers, and therefore have the courage to tell you frankly what I feel.

In the first place you profess to be a religious man, a man who believes in the spiritual world. But how do you do it, that the material you use in your ... these are given up ... I have seen that you have quite kept in mind the main equity you have towards ... I have seen that you have quite kept in mind the main equity you have towards ... I have seen that you have quite kept in mind the main equity you have towards ...

Now, in the second place, I have gone to your "Lamp of Truth" to see what is said ... I have seen that you have quite kept in mind the main equity you have towards ... I have seen that you have quite kept in mind the main equity you have towards ...

I was trying to write you ... I was trying to write you ... I was trying to write you ...
