

[Thomas R. E. McInnes to Robert L. Borden, Prime Minister]

Borden, Robert
 T. R. E. McInnes to Borden 2 Dec 1913 I am glad to see that the problem in British Columbia has been so satisfactorily solved in the present - I think and I hope able.
 I am sure of being able to do it as I was expecting the dangerous activities of the Anti-Chinese League in 1909. I had I could do it in the same way - myself. Practically unknown in the matter but having a free hand subject only to direct order of the Government.
 I have some important and reliable news concerning the activities of Dr. Sunder Singh.
 I had an interview some weeks ago with Dr. Roche. He is assured at the time & quite satisfied that his opinion in the West could properly handle any Oriental problem, maintaining a peaceful the fact of a peaceful. The fact that the Government, disregarding the advice of the Court, and the British Government took a risk first in (and a ship) action to the leader of the captain.
 A small letter has subsequently reported a hundred railway. The fact must be that the Government.
 It is the, showing the support of the leaders of the Chinese that you should be able to handle in a satisfactory manner. But there is a great deal of still. The fact information from the British. It is (and I think) I would be first in order of

IDENTIFIER

2021_07_10377

ARTIST

Borden, Robert L., 1854-1937; Singh, Sunder