

[William D. Scott, Superintendent of Immigration, Memorandum to William W. Cory, Deputy Minister of the Interior, re W. C. Hopkinson and compensation for his family]

Hopkinson W.D. Scott to W.W. Cory
 Memo W.D. Scott to W.W. Cory 20th Aug 1901
 17 Aug 1901
 RE: File 805722-2
 Jul 1901
 In compliance with your memorandum of the 17th inst. I beg to say that the late Mr. W. C. Hopkinson who was employed as an interpreter, was first engaged by the Department in February, 1899 and his contract was renewed in November, 1900. Mr. Hopkinson received a salary of $2,500. On the 1st of December, 1900, he was sent to the United States by a steamer on the 2nd of December, 1900.
 He was a very faithful, loyal and intelligent officer who was very popular and well liked. He was a very capable man and was a very good interpreter. He was a very good man and was a very good interpreter. He was a very good man and was a very good interpreter.
 He left a widow and five children, one 2 and the others from 1 year to 14 years. Mr. Hopkinson was a very good man and was a very good interpreter. He was a very good man and was a very good interpreter. He was a very good man and was a very good interpreter.
 I do not think that the Department has fully taken into consideration the claims of Mr. Hopkinson's widow and children. I think the Department should consider the claims of Mr. Hopkinson's widow and children. I think the Department should consider the claims of Mr. Hopkinson's widow and children. I think the Department should consider the claims of Mr. Hopkinson's widow and children.

IDENTIFIER
2021_07_10372

ARTIST
Hopkinson, William Charles, 1880-1914