IN THE COURT OF OYER & TERMINER & GENERAL GAOL DELIVERY.
VICTORIA FALL ASSIZES.
(Before The Honorable Mr. Justice Morrison.)
Vancouver, B. C.
Oct. 30th, 1914.

REX VS MEWA SINGH. (Murder.)

A. D. Taylor, Esq., K. C. for the Crown.
E. M. N. Woods, Esq., for the Accused.

MR. JUSTICE MORRISON. (Addressing the Jury.)
PROSECUTION BY CROWN.
Jury of twelve duly empanelled, and A. D. Chambers, Jr.,
chosen as Foreman.
Indictment read to the accused.

Interpreter: Yes, he says, I am guilty, I am on my oath, I am guilty.

Court: Mr. Woods.

Mr. Woods: That is the plea; I don't think you can accept a plea of guilty.

Mr. Taylor: I don't think that plea should be accepted; I think a plea of not guilty should be entered.

Court: I thought Mr. Woods would instruct him. Enter a plea of not guilty.

(Mr. Taylor addressed the court in speaking.)

W. A. CAMPBELL. WOODS. DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. TAYLOR.
