JURY DISAGREES IN BELA SINGH CASE

Four Hours of Deliberation Leaves Hinds Awaiting Another Trial.

After being out for four hours the jury in the case of murder against Bela Singh could not reach a verdict and must now be discharged, the accused man being committed back to jail to await another trial.

Mr. Justice McRae, who presided over the case, said the jury was divided 10 to 2 in favor of the accused man, and the case would be retried in the future.

The case was heard at the Supreme Court in Vancouver, and the jury was composed of 12 men. The accused man, Bela Singh, was charged with the murder of a woman named Mary Ann, who was found dead in a rooming house in Vancouver.

The case was heard for several days, and the jury was given a full day of deliberation. The judge said that the jury was divided 10 to 2 in favor of the accused man, and the case would be retried in the future.

UNUSUAL OPERATION OF BONE GRAFTING

Quince of Bone Replaced in Bridge of Nose by Vancouver Surgeon.

After being in vain in most of the large cities of the United States, in coming back to Vancouver, Dr. George Quince of this city has performed an operation of bone grafting in his nose, which is described as unique in the surgical world.

The operation was performed on a man named John, who had a large hole in his nose, and the bone was replaced by a bone from his leg. The operation was performed by Dr. George Quince, who is a well-known surgeon in Vancouver.
