

Newsclipping - Vancouver News-Advertiser: Hindu trouble under control

100 3/4

Re Hindu News-Advertiser, Sat Sept 21, 1907, p. 1
 "Hindu trouble under control" - Editorial Kelowna, B.C., Sept 21, 1907. - Before to Kelowna in Kelowna, several days ago which resulted in a considerable number of Hindus in the departure from city. Note sent from the Kelowna to the Hindu News-Advertiser at Kelowna, B.C., stating that the Hindu trouble had been under control and that the Hindus were in a state of peace and order.
 On Sept 21, a letter from the Hindu News-Advertiser to the Hindu News-Advertiser, Kelowna, B.C., stating that the Hindu trouble had been under control and that the Hindus were in a state of peace and order.
 The Hindu News-Advertiser, Kelowna, B.C., stated that the Hindu trouble had been under control and that the Hindus were in a state of peace and order.
 The Hindu News-Advertiser, Kelowna, B.C., stated that the Hindu trouble had been under control and
 that the Hindus were in a state of peace and order.

IDENTIFIER
2021_07_10409