

Newsclipping - Vancouver World: Thousands of citizens salute remains of the late Inspector Hopkins on way to cemetery

VICTORIA, B.C., SUNDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1914

Thousands of Citizens Salute Remains of the Late Inspector Hopkins on Way to Cemetery

During the funeral procession the police kept the sidewalks clear and the crowd of citizens who gathered on the way to the cemetery was the largest since the death of the late Inspector Hopkins. The procession was led by the police, followed by the remains of the late Inspector Hopkins, and then by the citizens. The crowd was estimated to be one of the largest in the city since the death of the late Inspector Hopkins.

The body of Inspector Hopkins was placed in a casket and carried by the police to the cemetery. The procession was led by the police, followed by the remains of the late Inspector Hopkins, and then by the citizens. The crowd was estimated to be one of the largest in the city since the death of the late Inspector Hopkins.

The funeral procession was held in honor of the late Inspector Hopkins, who was a well-known figure in the city. The procession was led by the police, followed by the remains of the late Inspector Hopkins, and then by the citizens. The crowd was estimated to be one of the largest in the city since the death of the late Inspector Hopkins.

CHIMNEY'S TOTAL FORCE

When the chimney is in the city, the total force of the chimney is estimated to be one of the largest in the city since the death of the late Inspector Hopkins.

$5.00 per Ton Delivered

KIRK & CO.

Vancouver Trust Company Limited

TRUSTEES, EXECUTORS, ASSIGNERS

Automobile, Accident and Fire Insurance

Phone: 305 and 3067 614 Pender St. W.

DR. O. G. GILBERT

TRINE

every day

TRINE is a safe and satisfactory preparation for the teeth and gums of healthy and over-elasticated teeth.

IDENTIFIER

2021_07_10455

ARTIST

Hopkinson, William Charles, 1880-1914