

[Letter from Backsese Kour [?] to Mayo Singh]

Dear Mr. Mayo,
You have asked me to return my gifts which I got for my wedding. I will return the cedar chest & you can tell Jindo to make me a list of everything else that was given to me by your family for I cannot remember what else was given from Mrs. Mayo & Jindo.
About the bedroom suite you asked me to return to you. You say to me that you gave it to me as a gift. I did not think of it while you were here so I am writing you about it after I ~~remembered~~ remembered about it. As you may know when my uncle died he had $600 in cash in his pocket. That money was given to Mr. Munshi to keep for us. Some of that money was used on his funeral costs & some we used but there was a great sum left. We were told after our wedding that the bedroom suite & a dining room suite for Navar was
